

LINES OF THE WEST: CAROLINE LAVOIE

Reno City Hall - Metro Gallery

August 20 – October 2, 2015

Reception: August 20, 5:00 – 7:00 pm

Metro Gallery in City Hall hosts conceptual artist and landscape architect Caroline Lavoie. Lines of the West explores large-scale landscapes of the American West and around the world. The large-scale landscape drawings delve into vast horizons, every line representing fluctuating forms of trees, rocks, boulders, mountains and structures. Each drawing was made on site, examining how we interact, interpret and perceive space around us. As a landscape architect Caroline has worked all over the world, with her drawings having been shown from Austin, Texas to Argentina.

Caroline Lavoie is an Associate Professor in the Department of Landscape Architecture and Environmental Planning at Utah State University. She holds two masters degrees in Landscape Architecture and Planning and a bachelor degree in Landscape Architecture from the Université de Montréal. A number Caroline's drawings and collages have been published in Landscape Journal and the KERB- Journal of Landscape Architecture and were exhibited in the Design Utah 2005 in Salt Lake City.
